

PIPELINE Media Guide 2022

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE FLORIDA IRRIGATION SOCIETY

The mission of the Florida Irrigation Society (FIS) is to be the recognized leader of Florida's irrigation industry by promoting the professional interest and business successes of its members through sound environmental stewardship, governmental advocacy, continuing education and professional certifications.

The PIPELINE Magazine, first published in 2003, is a valued resource and ongoing communication link that members keep and share. We invite any FIS member - irrigation contractor, irrigation designer, consultant, educator, equipment manufacturer, equipment distributor, municipality or student - to be a part of PIPELINE. For submission of articles for consideration or to place an advertisement, please contact us.
